Economic Impact of the Obamacare Taxes

2015

Obamacare is an unprecedented expansion of government intrusion into health care decisions for each and every American, and today represents broken promises, higher costs and fewer choices.

This law remains unworkable, unpopular and unaffordable and has saddled hardworking families with more than $1 trillion in new taxes over the next 10-years.<sup>1</sup>

According to the Congressional Budget Office (CBO), Obamacare will cost taxpayers more than $116 billion a year. In fact, on average, every American household can expect more than $20,000 in new taxes over the next 10-years.<sup>2</sup>

Obamacare's crushing regulations mean smaller paychecks for hardworking taxpayers, while holding back small businesses from expanding and hiring new workers. More government, more bureaucracy, and more bureaucratic red tape has meant soaring health care costs and less access to care.
